

Ancient Dragon Zen Gate Sangha Week @ Green Gulch Farm

Led by Rev. Hogetsu Laurie Belzer

Wednesday August 19, 2026 to Sunday August 23, 2026 (4 nights)

Experience temple life with the Green Gulch Farm community: attend morning zazen & service, work-practice, and evening zazen. Four hours of work-practice daily is required of participants. Afternoons and evenings, we can enjoy the beauty of the temple landscape and connect as ADZG sangha companions for study and exploration.

Our Ancient Dragon Zen Gate sangha, has been offered a wonderful opportunity to gather for practice at Green Gulch Farm, a San Francisco Zen Center training temple and organic farm. Green Gulch Farm is located in Muir Beach just over the Golden Gate Bridge near San Francisco in beautiful Marin County where we can walk to the ocean, stroll in the garden, and enjoy the sounds of the watershed as we engage the dharma teachings that awaken our compassionate hearts.

The SFZC cost* for includes all meals and lodging. Transportation to San Francisco and GGF are additional personal expenses. To reserve a space, discuss the itinerary or ask questions, please contact Hōgetsu in person, or at info@ancientdragon.org as soon as possible because the trip requires some advance planning and space is limited.

*SFZC Sangha Week rates per night – we will stay 4 nights:
Single Occupancy: Large Room $150 and Small Room $140
Shared/per person: Large Room $115 and Small Room $100
